

All Clear in Harrisburg

Musik und Text: Tom Paxton

1. You may come back to your homes now ci-ti-zens. You may come back to the nest.
2. You may come back to your homes now ci-ti-zens, The town is per-fect-ly clean.

We had a litt-le spot of troub-le, it's true. But things turned out for the best.
And please be-lieve us you have no-thing to fear, If now and then you turn green.

Yes a litt-le ra-di-a-tion got loose, And peo-ple ran for the bus.
Three Mile Is-land is a won-der-ful place, And the fu-ture is now.

And let me tell you if you live down-wind, () You'll be hear-ing from us.
Oh by the way I would-n't eat that egg, Or drink the milk from that cow.

Refrain

You just might glow in the dark, Grow fea-thers like a lark,

Stand in the foun-tain and light up the park. Have a nice day, The chan-ces you may, Blow your-self and half of Penn-syl-van-ia a-way.

Langsamer

3. You may relax in your homes now Harrisburg.
For sure the crisis is past.
Oh sure we may have a problem or two,
The next one might be the last.
Oh yes the wave of the future is here.
It's reassuring to know.
They'll be no need of a suntan next year,
For we'll be wearing our glow.
